

SPORTSMANSHIP: (Perpetual and Keeper Awards sponsored by The Aarup Family/Dakota Winds Farm): To enjoy Miniature horses, to promote understanding, knowledge and proper care of horses to fellow MHCO members and/or exhibitors. Skill in/fondness for the MHCO, a person who can take loss or defeat without complaint, or victory without gloating and who treats his fellow exhibitors with fairness, generosity and courtesy, is respectful of rules and decisions of officials, gives maximum effort.

The nominees for this award are:

Anette Kelley
Alysia Reichertz

And the Winner is:

Anette Kelley

We nominate Anette Kelley for the Sportsmanship Trophy.

Anette enjoys her two miniature horses – Susie and Mack.

She promotes understanding, knowledge and proper care of horses.

She promotes the MHCO in any way she can – especially to new exhibitors. She is very willing to help any exhibitor whether it be loading equipment, being a header, helping hitch a horse, or just giving encouragement.

Anette knows and respects the rules and decisions of officials. She can take loss or defeat without complaint, victory without gloating. She treats her fellow exhibitors with fairness, generosity and courtesy.

Anette is very deserving of the Sportsmanship Award.

Anette is always friendly and cheerful with everyone. No matter how she places, she never complains. She just loves to be showing her beautiful horses. We believe she is a good candidate for this award.
