

SPORTSMANSHIP: (Perpetual and Keeper Awards sponsored by The Aarup Family/Dakota Winds Farm): To enjoy Miniature horses, to promote understanding, knowledge and proper care of horses to fellow MHCO members and/or exhibitors. Skill in/fondness for the MHCO, a person who can take loss or defeat without complaint, or victory without gloating and who treats his fellow exhibitors with fairness, generosity and courtesy, is respectful of rules and decisions of officials, gives maximum effort.

The nominees for this award are:

Gary and Katherine Brown
Faith Dennis
Julie Fitzsimmons
Anette Kelley
Danny Laycock

And the Winner is:

Gary & Katherine Brown

We feel that they demonstrate a fondness for the MHCO-, Even though they were unable to show their horses this year due to health issues, they still came out to the various events (Fuzzy Show, Brooklin Fair, general meetings, etc.) to support the Club and their fellow members! In past years when they were showing, they were happy to just be with their animals and other horse people – if they won a ribbon that was a bonus!! Gary and Katherine are definitely people who can take loss or defeat without complaint or victory without gloating. They treat their fellow exhibitors with fairness, generosity and courtesy, are respectful of rules and decisions of officials, and give maximum effort.
